The presentation concluded with a question-answer period.

NATIONAL FIRM OPENS LOCAL OFFICE

STROUT REALTY, INC. has opened a branch office in Appomattox, it was announced this week. The large number of prospective buyers who have indicated an interest in this area was the prime reason for establishing this office.

Joel (Joey) George and Mike George of Lynchburg have joined the office according to information received by the TIMES-VIRGINIAN from the Company's Home Office.

Joey, a native of Appomattox, worked for 12 years as a commercial artist with Lynchburg Engraving Company before joining the sales staff at Old Colonial Realty of Lynchburg and now joins Strout Realty as Co-Branch Manager at their new office in Appomattox.

Mike, also a native of Appomattox, worked as a real estate sales associate for Bryan W. Wood and Company and for Seven Hills, Ltd. in Lynchburg for the past three years prior to joining Strout as Co-Branch Manager. He is a graduate of Realtors Institute.

Both Joey and Mike are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Percy W. George of Appomattox.

Strout Realty, Inc. has over 600 offices throughout the United States, selling all types of real estate. Joel and Mike invite property owners to avail themselves of Strout's Nationwide service. The new office is located on Confederate Blvd. (Route 460) across from Appomattox Garment Company.

LOCAL YOUTHS ATTEND NATIONAL FARM MACHINERY SHOW

Members of the Appomattox Senior FFA Chapter and the Appomattox Young Farmers Club recently attended the National Farm Machinery Show and Tractor Pull in Louisville, Kentucky. those attending included Danny Carson, William Prrdue, Nathan Smith, Tom Hix, Baxter Parris, Sammy and Sheila Martin, Eddie Covington and Dennis Torrence.

The National Farm Machinery Show is held each year at the Kentucky State Fair grounds with over ten acres of displays under cover. All the Mason Machinery Companies across the nation displayed the latest farm equipment known around the world as the most modern and sophisticated in use today. Over 175,000 people viewed the displays over a four day period.

Also observed by the Appomattox group was the exciting 15th annual National Tractor Pull contest. For four nights a full house of 15,000 fans watched farmers across the U. S. compete for $57,000 in cash prizes.

The trip was part of the instructional program in agricultural education at A. C. H. S.

MRS. JERRY WAYNE SINK
the former Miss Suzanne Marie Kanipe

Vows Exchanged

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kanipe announce the marriage of their daughter, Suzanne Marie, to Jerry Wayne Sink, son of Mrs. Lucille Sink and the late Mr. Sink.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Callaham, pastor of the Church of God, in Princeton, West Virginia, on February 24, 1977.

Mr. and Mrs. Kanipe are having a reception on Sunday, March 20, 1977, at their home from 2 to 4 p.m. in honor of Jerry and Suzanne. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Miss Torrence Wed To Kenneth Lee Jones

The marriage of Miss Delores Jean Torrence to Kenneth Lee Jones was an event of March 5, 1977 at Spout Spring Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Doris Dalton and Mr. Allen Torrence of Appomattox and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs.Ruth Oliver of Fort Belvoir and the late Mr. Alsie L. Jones of Richmond, Virginia.

The Rev. H. C. Crabree, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Linda Torrence of Appomattox was her sister's only attendant.

Richard Sweeney of Appomattox was the groom's best man.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed by Genesco Garment Company in Appomattox.

The groom is a 1971 graduate of Partick Henry High School and is employed by J. S. Bryant Trucking Company of Lynchburg.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Appomattox.

ACHS Student Served As A General Assembly Clerk 9 Weeks

John Foxwell, a ninth grade student at Appomattox County High School, has returned home after spending nine weeks in Richmond. John was selected to serve as a Clerk for the Senate Legislative Services during the 1977 session of the General Assembly. He went to Richmond on January 5, a week before the session actually started, to learn the job he would be performing during the session. While away from school John has been doing independent studying to keep up with his classmates.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Foxwell. While in Richmond he stayed with his grandmother, Mrs. M. J. McCue.

Honored Upon Retirement

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Brightwell of Rou e 1, Charlotte Court House, Va. were guests of honor at the Wedgewood Country Club in Farmville on Saturday evening March 5, 1977. Mr. Brightwell was being honored upon retirement after 34 years of fine work and achievement with the Kyanite Mining Corporation of Dillwyn, Va. He served in the capacity of superintendent for 18 of those years at the Bakers Mountain and the Pamplin plants.

Other guests included the officials and employees of the plant and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Morris of Charlottesville, Va.

After a delicious dinner, Mr. Brightwell was presented with many lovely gifts.

Although the Kyanite Mining Corporaton expressed a desire to have Mr. Brightwell continue with his work, he declined.Retired from public service, Mr. Brightwell is by no means retired from living; his farm, gardening, and especially his hobby of fishing will keep him busy. Friends and business associates of this fine couple wish them many happy years of retirement.

Beta Sigma Phi Notes

The first monthly meeting of February for the Delta Zeta Chapter was held February 9, 1977 at the Avalon Club. The business meeting was dispensed with as members of the chapter and the XiGamma Tau chapter discussed last minute details and decorated the club for their annual Valentine Dance to be February 11, 1977.

On February 23, 1977 the second monthly meeting was held at the home of Christine Knight. Members, pledges and guests enjoyed refreshments as our president conducted the business meeting. Final plans for our next social, a night of bowling and pizza, were made. Committees were appointed and supplies ordered for our annual Founders Day Banquet, which will be held the latter part of April. A two member committee was appointed to begin preparations for our scholarship, to be given to a high school senior.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Christine Knight and Janice McCormick presented a program entitled "Esthetics - Perception of Beauty."
